HOLIDAY DINNER DANCE!

Wednesday, Dec. 10, 2014

Traverse City Golf & Country Club
1725 South Union Street, Traverse City
6 p.m. social hour, cash bar; 7 p.m. plated dinner

Please join us for a delightful evening at the Newcomers Annual Holiday Dinner Dance. This event is exclusive to Newcomers. Don't miss this opportunity to dress in your finest attire, meet, mingle and celebrate the holiday season.

The social hour begins at 6 p.m. with a cash bar followed by a plated dinner. The Blue Shadow Band will provide live music for your listening and dancing pleasure.

Your choice of entree:

-Herb crusted roasted 10 oz. carved prime rib served with horseradish crème.

-Oven roasted Canadian salmon with fresh basil pesto crème.

All dinners include: classic Caesar salad with Country Club's homemade Caesar dressing, parsley buttered red skin potatoes, asparagus with julienne vegetables, fresh baked rolls and whipped butter, coffee and tea, peppermint ice cream. Gratuity included on meals and drink orders. (Special meal upon request)

All reservations must be received by Dec. 2.

Cut out the form below with your entree choice and check made payable to Newcomers Club for $42 per person and mail to:

Carol Cavanaugh - Event Planner
115 North Madison
Traverse City, MI 49684

Special Note: We encourage everyone to bring non-perishable food items to donate to the Northwest Food Coalition. Cash donations are also welcome. Let's continue to help those less fortunate during this joyous but needy time of year.

NOVEMBER 2014

Dear Fellow Newcomers,

Our annual Kick-Off Dinner was held in September and we want to thank those that worked so hard to make the evening a success.

Linda Proffitt and Dave Richard
2014-2015

Our V.P.'s Brenda Knaack and Mike Semrau with Event Planner Carol Cavanaugh devoted many hours in the planning and preparation of this event. Judy Pelto, Activity Chair, organized the 24 activity booths and both she and her husband Bob made all of the posters identifying the different activities. Volunteer activity leaders provided information about their activities. Debbie May, our Public Relations Chair, with her assistant Natalie Martin took more than 80 photographs of members to put a face with the name in our directory. Thank you all for an excellent job.

Our November meeting is Monday the 17th at the Presbyterian Church of Traverse City and will feature a volunteer fair. Marsha Andres and Dale Wentzloff have put together an event featuring 24 Traverse City organizations that are looking for volunteers. Helping with this event are Judy Pelto, Alice Seppanen, Lorna Anderson, Cheryl Bzdok, Debbie May and Linda Proffitt. Thank you all for your contribution.

Our monthly meetings not only feature an engaging speaker but six dozen cookies. Sandy Stockemer has been our cookie procurer for the past two years but now Sally Ton, a relatively new member, will be calling you for your cookie contribution. Please don't disappoint her and thank you Sandy and Sally for all of your time and effort in this very important endeavor.

There is a point to this congratulatory letter and that is your club works because our members step forward to help. If you have not done so please help us continue to be successful by volunteering a few hours. If you think you would like to become a board member, mention it to member of the board, and come to a meeting to learn about what we do. It's an amazing experience and a wonderful opportunity to connect.

Remember, this is your club, and as VP Mike Semrau said at the Kick-Off, "we need your suggestions for future programs to continue to make your club successful."

This month, it's about lending a hand

Interest is building in NC Volunteer Fair

Local interest is building in the approaching Volunteer Fair as organizers in the Newcomers Club of Grand Traverse report area nonprofit organizations are quickly signing up to talk about their good deeds and the many ways Newcomers can help.

"It is so exciting to see this event come together," said Marsha Andres, who co-chairs the Volunteer Fair committee with Dale Wentzloff.

"The general meeting in November is one you won't want to miss."

Representatives of lesser-known nonprofits in the Grand Traverse area will talk and staff tables of information at the Volunteer Fair from 6 to 9 p.m. Nov. 17 at the Presbyterian Church of Traverse City. The church is located at 701 Westminster Road.

"We are hoping our fellow Newcomers will turn-out in great numbers to support and have a little fun with our guests from the community while learning about some unique opportunities," said

Volunteer Spotlight on Jody Bennett: 'It's good to be useful.'

Newcomer Jody Bennett came to a simple realization long ago.

"It's good to be useful," Jody said, noting that when she and her husband, Bob Luoma, moved to Traverse City from Lansing, Mich., in 1998, they began looking for opportunities. "We hadn't joined Newcomers yet so we didn't have many friends, and we wanted some interaction with the community."

The hunt for a compatible volunteer opportunity led Jody and Bob downtown to the Traverse City Visitors Center. According to Jody, the Visitors Center at the corner of Grandview Parkway and Union Street is an excellent place to begin any Up North adventure.

"I think we learned a lot more than our visitors did during the first couple of years," she said, adding that the Visitor Center is home to the offices of Traverse City Tourism and staff there arranges frequent outings for the volunteers to familiarize themselves with new places.

Jody has been volunteering at the Visitors Center for 10 years. You can find her at the front desk greeting guests, handing out maps, answering telephones and helping visitors select from the more than 150 brochures that highlight offerings unique to the area.

For the last three years, Jody also has been volunteering at the Traverse Health Clinic, a provider of quality health care in the region, accepting people of all ages, with or without medical insurance. The Traverse Health Clinic treats everyone regardless of ability to pay.

"I feel blessed that I have decent health insurance coverage without which would have made a huge negative

ACTIVITY GROUPS

BALLROOM/TANGO DANCE LESSONS

To join or for more information on this fun activity, contact the instructors, Ron and Lori Hensel, at henselr@charter.net or 231-620-1485 or 231-838-5679. RSVP is needed for Nov. dance lessons.

BIKING

The biking group is suspended for the winter season but will commence again in April or May 2015. If interested in information about the group, contact Ira Wasserman at carole_wasserman@hotmail.com or 231-922-1581.

BOOK CLUB – MEN'S

Monday, Nov. 24, 10 a.m.

Our November book is Bunker Hill by Nathaniel Philbrick. It details the events leading up to the first armed conflicts of the Revolutionary War between colonists and British troops in and around Boston. The climax was the so-called battle of Bunker Hill, which ended hope of a peaceful conclusion to the disagreements between the colonies and England and the tensions between British loyalists and non-loyalists.

We meet in the lower level of Horizon Books. For more information, contact Dave Amos, 231-271-0665, or mideamos@hotmail.com.

BOOK GROUP – WOMEN'S—AM

Tuesday, Nov. 4, 10:30 a.m.

The Tuesday AM Book Club will meet at Horizon Books to discuss the November book, Boys in the Boat, by Daniel James Brown. We will lunch afterwards at Amical.

The club meets in the lower level of Horizon Books. For questions, contact Carole Wasserman at carole_wasserman@hotmail.com or 231-922-1581.

BOOK CLUB – WOMEN'S – PM

Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1 p.m.

The group will discuss The Farm by Tom Rob Smith.

Other upcoming books (not necessarily in this order) include:

The Goldfinch
Annie's Ghost
Frog Music

The Boys in the Boat

Snow Flower and the Secret Fan

The Invention of Wings

The afternoon group meets on the first Tuesday of the month in the lower level of Horizon Books. For questions, contact Mary Wayne at mwayne44@hotmail.com.

BRIDGE

Wednesday, Nov. 19, 6:30 p.m.

The Newcomers Bridge Group usually meets on the fourth Wednesday of each month. The date may be changed due to Holiday schedules. Such is the case for November at the home of Max and Linda Proffitt, where we'll meet for November on the third Wednesday.

Each member will receive directions and other information from the hosts. Evenings begin at 6:30 p.m. for social time and play begins at 7 p.m.

Newcomers social bridge is just that - social and not seriously competitive. We enjoy getting to know each other. If you haven't played for a while or need a brush up, you can come for a brush up, you can watch over our shoulders, or take your place at the table and ask any questions you have and we will happily help you along.

Anyone interested in playing or for more information, contact Mike Semrau at 231-421-8171 or at izzvandmike@yahoo.com.

COCKTAILS & CONVERSATION

The next Cocktails and Conversation will be in November - date & time to be determined. If you are on the mailing list you will receive that information when it becomes available. There will be no C&C in December due to everyone's busy holiday schedule.

We need hosts for January, February, March, April and May; if there isn't a host there isn't a C&C, it's that simple. The group has committed hosts for June, July and August. Contact Michele Richard to volunteer to host and she'll walk you through it. You will be surprised how easy it is and how many new friends you will make as a result. Questions? Please contact Michele at richard.michele@rocketmail.com or 231-357-3039.

CROSS COUNTRY SKIING

There will be no event scheduled for November unless the weather allows it. If we get sufficient snow in November, members of the group will be notified. Questions? Contact Ira Wasserman at carole_wasserman@hotmail.com.

DINNER FOR EIGHT

Join us for Dinner for Eight! Six people join two hosts at their home and each "pair" of people will provide part of the meal and there will be four meals scheduled from October through May. The hosts provide the entrée and a couple of sides, plus beverages with up to two glasses of wine per person. The guests bring appetizers or salad and bread or dessert.

There is still time to join Dinner for Eight as a substitute or possibly a regular group member.

If you are interested in joining the group, please contact Nancy Johnson at johns526@msu.edu.

DINNER OUT

Sunday, Nov. 23, 5 p.m.

Our selection for dinner out this month is The Manor on Glen Lake. This restaurant is formerly a 100-year-old hotel, with the view of beautiful Glen Lake. The Manor is usually closed on Sunday in November but owner Nancy Wright is opening it for our group. We will have a limited menu of four entrees to select from, which includes white fish, chicken, vegetable lasagna and prime rib.

Please join us Nov. 23 for appetizers and cocktails at 5 p.m. with dinner starting at 6 p.m.

The Manor, 7345 W. Glenmere Road (M22 south of Glen Arbor), Empire, Mich.

Contact Barb Watson at bwatsonjb@gmail.com by Nov. 17.

EUCHRE

Euchre groups meet once a month in each others' homes. We currently have 10 groups. Each group is made up of three to four tables. Group members change tables and partners throughout the evening which makes for a lot of opportunity for lively conversation. Of course, food and beverage are involved. The players within any group are of varying levels of experience. Euchre, in Newcomers, is a social, not a competitive event.

This group is headed by Gregg and Sue McDonald at gsmcdonald64@gmail.com or librarygirl1963@hotmail.com.

FILM GROUP

Thursday, Nov. 13

The film group is a casual fun group made up of people who love the movies. We attend movies at different theaters throughout the season and go out for discussion, food and libations afterwards. The group meets the second Thursday of every month from September through May. The group may occasionally add an extra film date during any given month if a film looks interesting and it's not available at the time of the regular meeting date.

Notification as to the film, time and place is emailed to film group members a few days before the outing. Anyone interested in joining the group may contact Judy Pelto at jpelto1@charter.net.

FISHING

The salmon run is over and winter steelhead are moving into rivers all along the west coast of Michigan. Steelhead will be present all winter and peak in late winter and early spring. Check the fishing regulations for your fishing locations as we transition from fall into winter.

Contact Pete Albers at phalbers99@gmail.com or 231-922-7289 if you're interested in joining the group.

GARDENING

With possible on-demand exceptions, Garden Club will suspend meetings until early spring.

Questions about the Gardening Club? Contact Cindy Miner at puddlenpines@gmail.com.

GOLF

The Golf Group is in hibernation until May 4, 2015.

Please mark your calendars ... we will officially kick off the new season at The Crown golf course at 10 a.m. If you would like your name added to our roster, please contact Mike Huffman at wdcspike@yahoo.com or Dale Wentzloff at dale@wentzloff.com.

MEN'S BREAKFAST

Wednesday, Nov. 12, 9 a.m.

This group meets at the Omelette Shoppe next to the Wild Birds Unlimited store in the Campus Plaza the second Wednesday of the month at 9 a.m. We meet all year around and always meet regardless of the weather. Bring all the testosterone you can muster.

Contact George Kobernus at gkobernus@charter.net or 231-933-9321

MICROBREW GROUP

Thursday, Nov. 20

The Microbrew Tasting Group will hold its November session on Thursday, Nov. 20th. The location has yet to be determined, but will be provided to the group's members the first week of November.

If you have questions/comments, or wish to join the group, please contact Joel McElrath at jmcelrath@epri.com or 650-714-4557.

NEWCOMERS NEEDLERS

Thursday, Nov. 6 & 20, 1 to 3 p.m.

Join us twice a month for a couple of hours of uninterrupted knitting, crocheting, needlepoint or rug hooking. Our low-key group enjoys working on projects in the company of others. Come with a project, or just to chat. If you need help, someone is probably able to assist you.

We meet on the first and third Thursdays of the month, 1 to 3 p.m., at Aroma's Coffee Shop at the intersection of M-22 and M-72, across from Tom's West Bay. We meet in the conference room.

Have questions or want to be added to the email list for reminders? Contact Robbin Stott, stottrobbin@gmail.com or 231-932-1709 for more information.

OUT-TO-LUNCH BUNCH

Wednesday, Nov. 12, noon

The group will meet at Lobdell's: A Teaching Restaurant, 715 E. Front St. Please note the time change! To reserve your spot or for information, contact Sis Leake at sisleake@charter.net or at 231-421-8747.

This group meets at a well-rated restaurant on the second Wednesday of each month.

PADDLING

The Paddling Group is now being led by Marilyn and Bob Auberle. They will be reaching out to members interested in joining the group and discuss ideas for the 2015 paddling season. For information, contact Marilyn and Bob at auberle29@yahoo.com.

POKER

Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1 p.m.

The poker group usually meets the first Tuesday of the month, with winter hours of 1 to 4 p.m. and summer hours of 6 to 9 p.m. The group meets on a rotating basis at each member's home. The game is small stakes to keep the game and conversation fun and friendly and no weapons are produced. The group plays dealer's choice, which sometimes evokes a response, "Did you just make that up?" But we all like new games we haven't played before. The host merely has to provide the home and setup; participants bring snacks and drinks.

The November meeting will be held on Nov. 4 from 1 to 4 p.m. The host will be Mike Rollert. Contact Mike at michael.rollert@gmail.com if you plan to attend. Mike will send out info and directions prior to the game.

The poker group coordinator is Mike Huffman. Contact Mike at 517-655-3374 or wcdspike@yahoo.com

SOLOS GROUP

Wednesday, Nov. 19, noon

Flying "solo" right now? The Solos Group can make being new in town and on your own more fun. The group is made up of people who are single or perhaps married but in need of someone to pair up for events when spouses or significant others prefer not to mingle. While the Solos Group will schedule lunches, dinners and other special outings, the group aims to forgo duplication of current Newcomer Club activities that are open to all members, including singles. The goal of the Solos Group is truly to meet and make friends, offering a "buddy network" to those who may initially feel uncomfortable attending Newcomer or other Up North events alone. Anyone interested in joining the group may contact Barb Lalonde, bjlalonde@charter.net, or Garnett Raymond, garnettraymond100@gmail.com.

At noon on Wednesday, Nov. 19, there will be a lunch at Ruby Tuesday at 1764 U.S. 31, Traverse City. RVSP by November 16.

At 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 14 there will be a Christmas Party at Barbara LaLonde's at 7150 Hilltop Avenue, Traverse City. Bring a dish to share and BYOB. RSVP by December 11.

THEATRE GROUP

Saturday, Nov. 8, 5 p.m.

The Studio is our destination on Nov. 8 to see "On the Verge or the Geography of Yearning," written by Eric Overmeyer.

Three daring Victorian "ladies" hack their way with machetes and tromp through Terra Incognita, amid tales of their past adventures, eating strange foods, meeting fascinating people, and absorbing everything, past, present and future in their wake through this time travel comic fantasy.

We will meet at Minerva's at 5 p.m. for drinks and dinner purchased individually from the menu. Betsy Willis will have our tickets at Minerva's and she will tell us a bit about what to expect from this production. The play begins at 7:30 p.m. at the Studio.

Dinner reservations to Sandy Stockemer:

dkstockemer@gmail.com

Please purchase your theater tickets from Betsy at OTP (947-2210 ext 102). Old Town Playhouse graciously offers us a discount for a group of 10 or more. Tickets must be purchased by Oct. 30.

The next production on the OTP Main Stage is "A Christmas Carol", which opens Thanksgiving weekend. We will forgo dinner, but will still attend the performance as a group on Nov. 28. Please bring your weekend house guests along. Tickets must be purchased by Nov. 17.

Questions or concerns. contact: Kerr Anderson at kerrandsn@gmail.com or 231-935-1875, or Sandy Stockemer at dkstockemer@gmail.com or 231-932-2276.

VOLUNTEER AT THE STATE/BIJOU

Wednesday, Nov. 5, 2:30 p.m./State, approx. 4 p.m./Bijou

Thursday, Nov. 20, 2:30 p.m./State, approx. 4 p.m./Bijou

State/Bijou Theatres Volunteers: Join us as we work in the concession area, take tickets, sweep floors, usher or run errands. Free popcorn and pop, a voucher for another movie, and tokens for the parking ramp complete the experience. Our afternoon shift is sometimes slow and sometimes busy. Give it a try and perhaps you might like to move to a busier time on your own. You are more than welcome to remain at this less active level, too.

We have two shifts per month, and you may choose the one you prefer. We work on the first Wednesday and the third Thursday of each month from 2:30 to 5:15 p.m. at the State and 4 to 6:15 p.m. at the Bijou (subject to change as the movie schedule dictates). Join us for dinner after if you have time.

Space is limited, so please sign up via email with Nancy Johnson. Contact Nancy at johns526@msu.edu or 231-668-9633 if you would like to be added to the list of potential volunteers.

TRAVEL GROUP

The travel group will plan some small and large adventures that will be open to all interested persons. Contact Barbara LaLonde at bjlalde@charter.net.

Currently the Travel Group is planning an event which will take place in late January or February. More information will be provided later.

WALK IN THE WOODS

This group is in hibernation until spring. If you would like to join up for future walks, please contact Don Eastway at luremuq@yahoo.com.

WINE TASTING

Tuesday, Nov. 11, 4 p.m.

We will visit 2 Lads Winery at 16985 Smokey Hollow Road on Old Mission Peninsula on Nov. 11. The tasting will start at 4 p.m. and this event will be limited to 20 members. The cost of the tasting is $5.

Please RSVP to Denise McElrath at mcelrathbeachbum@att.net. If members still want to be in the wine tasting group and didn't sign up at the Kickoff Dinner, please contact Denise.

Caring Connections Expanded Role is under way

The expanded pilot program for Caring Connections has begun.

MI 26 News reports on NC Theatre Group

A way to get behind the scenes!

Lights! Camera! Action!

The Newcomers Club of Grand Traverse and the Old Town Playhouse were featured in a television segment every 90 minutes on MI 26 News, WMNNH, on Sept. 18 and 27.

The TV spot highlighted the Newcomers new Theatre Group that exposes club members to auditions, directors, rehearsals and volunteer opportunities for each production at the Old Town Playhouse in Traverse City. Members of the Theatre Group then attend the final production together, helping to fill the seats and grow the fan base by spreading the word locally on the latest productions at the Old Town Playhouse.

MI 26 News Reporter Paula Jasper interviewed Linda Proffitt, co-president of the Newcomers, and Kerr Anderson, a Newcomer and Old Town Playhouse set designer and actor. The interview took place at the Old Town Playhouse.

Interest in fair is building

Wentzloff, who noted that the event is centered on the mission of the Newcomers Club to provide volunteer service to the community.

Agencies registered to attend the Volunteer Fair include AC Paw, Cherryland Humane Society, City Opera House, Dennon Museum, Disability Network of Northern Michigan, Friends of Sleeping Bear, Grand Traverse Probate Court Volunteer Services, Grand Traverse Regional Land Conservancy, Great Lakes Children's Museum, HOPE - Helping Owners with Pet Expenses, Inland Seas, Leelanau Conservancy, Maritime Heritage Alliance, Munson Hospice, Munson Medical Center, Old Town Playhouse, Peace Ranch, TART / VASA Trails, Traverse Area District Library, Traverse City Health Clinic, Traverse City History Center, Watershed Center, and the Women's Resource Center.

More information on the volunteer fair will be available through Newcomers Club email, newsletter and www.gtnewcomers.org.

Volunteer Spotlight

difference in my retirement life. . . I learned I could be of help enrolling clients (at the clinic) in programs that provided them with health coverage. It seemed like a good payback," Jody said.

Jody encourages fellow Newcomers to give volunteering a try. She suggests asking other club members where they have had good experiences volunteering or to just choose an area of interest and keep trying out organizations until a good match is found.

"There are many ways to volunteer in the Grand Traverse area," Jody said. "If you want to feel more like you are a part of the community, volunteering is one good way to do it."

Looking to contact that Newcomers member? Use the directory!

The names, addresses, phone numbers and email addresses of all of our members can be found in the Newcomers Directory, which is housed on our website — gtnewcomers.org. Every new member receives the user name and password to the website as well as directions on how to access the directory in the materials mailed to you when you joined.

If you have lost those materials and need the passwords, please email our webmaster, Rose Carman, at brcarman@live.com and she will provide them to you. Reminder — we ask that this information be kept confidential among Newcomer members.

In the past a printed copy of the directory was provided to each member, but that was when the club was much smaller and membership didn't grow as fast as it does now, making the directory obsolete whenever printed. Also, copying the current 41 page directory and mailing it is now cost prohibitive (see accompanying article, below, describing annual budget).

For those who find using the website difficult, we offer three solutions:

1. Print a copy of the directory from the website. When you receive the monthly newsletter, update your own copy with new member information.
2. Ask a friend to print you a copy and then update the information as you get the newsletter.
3. As of Dec. 1st we will provide a hard copy to you, at $5 per copy. Please contact board member Doug Morrison at 231-360-7406 or morrdj@yahoo.com for information.

Expenses are on the rise, so NC is looking closely at its budget

As with everyone, the Newcomers Club is experiencing continued increases in its expenses this year. Our insurance cost has increased significantly, since we now cover 500 instead of just 200 members. In addition, food costs have gone up, resulting in increased costs for both the Kick-Off and the Holiday Party. Fish costs have gone up 27 percent alone!

In the recent past the club subsidi-

-Off by $6.56. The charge for the Holiday Party reflects these increased costs, and there still re-dized some events because we had extra funds. And, despite a $5-per-meal increase charge to members, the club subsidized each meal at the Kick mains a small subsidy per meal paid for by the club.

While our members have enjoyed the benefit of the club offsetting some event costs in the past, we cannot assure this practice can continue. Therefore, the board is looking at ways to keep events very nice but also more affordable for all members. If you have ideas or suggestions, please share them with any board member.

THANK YOU !

Judy Pelto would like to thank Barb Lalonde and Garnett Raymond for stepping up to co-chair the Singles Group. Also, many thanks to Christine Riddle and John Walter POSSIBLE NEW ACTIVITY - MIXED DOUBLES TENNIS!

We are taking a poll to determine if there is enough interest to start a Mixed Doubles Tennis Group Activity. We want to know if there is interest in indoor play during the winter at the new YMCA as well as seasonal outdoor play at local tennis courts. If you have an interest in this type of activity please email Pat Solem at patsolem@gmail.com. and let her know if you are interested in only indoor play , only outdoor play or both indoor and outdoor Play. If we have enough interest to form a group further details will follow.

WOMEN OF NEWCOMERS: How about some poker?

We are attempting to establish a user-friendly LADY'S POKER GROUP.

The stakes would be no more than nickel, dime, quarter, with a $1 raise limit per betting round. Any playing level is welcome, as long as interest is the common denominator.

If the group sounds like fun to you, please contact Lauri Varga at lauri.varga@charter.net
