Traverse City Historian and Author

Richard Fidler

Tuesday, March 26
History Center of Traverse City
6:30 PM

Have you ever wondered how the saying, "A view of the Bay is worth half the pay," came into being? Where were the women of Grand Traverse in the 19th century and how did the KKK gain a local foothold? Mr. Fidler will answer these and many other provocative questions about local history. Read more....

SOLD TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER!!

The annual Newcomers Auction will be combined with the Annual Picnic this year on June 2 at Gilbert Lodge on Long Lake Road. This year's only fundraiser to support our programs will get everyone involved: donate an item or event, solicit items from local businesses, help at the auction, bid on great items.

Think about what you can donate. More details and forms to describe your donation can be found here.
